Teacher Terms

This section outlines what's additionally required of you when creating a Teacher account on Selectiva.org.

Teacher Accounts

By registering for a teacher account with Selectiva.org, you acknowledge and agree that:

1. You are a "Teacher," meaning that you teach in an eligible position, and meet all of the following criteria:
 - You are a full-time employee of a PreK-12 public school, charter school, or Head Start Center in the 50 states or District of Columbia that is approved and verified by Selectiva.org;
 - You work directly with students at least 75% of the time; and
 - You are not an administrator, paraprofessional, teacher's aide, substitute teacher, or student teacher.
2. No local law, regulation, or institutional policy prohibits your use of the Site, and you have obtained all necessary authorization from your educational institution and/or school district ("Institution") to enter into this Agreement.
3. From time to time, Selectiva.org may contact you through email or by phone (including automated calls and messages) about your account, project, or use of the Sites. Even if you "opt out" of a correspondence, you're still responsible to be aware of any information or updates we send about your account.

Project Submissions

Selectiva.org has sole discretion to approve projects submitted by Teachers. By creating a project on our Site, you acknowledge and agree that:

1. The activity you propose is legal, and you have the necessary permissions from your Institution and/or student's parent(s) or legal guardian(s) to complete the project if fully funded.
2. You, your friends or family members will not financially benefit from the project.
3. You have the right to upload all data or information that you provide on behalf of yourself, your Institution, or its students. You are solely responsible for obtaining these rights, permissions, and authorizations before submitting this Content to Selectiva.org.
4. You have obtained all necessary prior written consent from the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of any students who are shown, referenced, or otherwise identified in the Content that you choose to provide to Selectiva.org, using the permission form provided by Selectiva.org and any other applicable permission forms or releases as determined by your Institution. You will only post photos for which you have obtained signed permission slips from the parent(s) or legal guardian(s), and you can present those permission slips to Selectiva.org upon request at any time.
5. Any projects you submit are for your class. You will not submit projects on behalf of another teacher or classroom. If you post a project on behalf of your Institution, or in a joint effort across classes at your Institution, you agree to take full responsibility for the project if it is fully funded.
6. Selectiva.org is not required to treat any submission as confidential, and will always post projects requesting funding alongside the school name, city, and state.

Fully-Funded Projects

By submitting a project, you agree to the following if the project is fully funded:

1. Requested resources will be used by students or to provide a student experience as described in your project essay. In the case of professional development projects, you agree that the requested resources and/or funds will solely be used to help you improve your craft as an educator.
2. You will fulfill your thank-you package responsibilities (as detailed below) in a timely manner, and you will contact Selectiva.org immediately if you can't so that we can provide reasonable guidance to develop an alternative plan.
3. You understand and abide by our Materials Ownership Policy, which explains that project materials received through Selectiva.org should stay in the classroom for which they were purchased, unless the project essay clearly states that materials are for student use or ownership outside of the classroom. The policy also outlines how materials should be distributed if you will no longer be in the classroom for which the project was funded.

Thank-You Package Responsibilities

Once a project is fully funded and implemented (i.e., the materials are put to use in the classroom, or the trip/event takes place), teachers are required to complete a thank-you package ("TYP"). The TYP consists of an impact letter, photos of the project in action, and thank-you notes from students. Thank-you notes are only required when one or more Donors indicate that they would like to receive them, and we'll let you know at the time of full funding whether or not thank-you notes are required. In submitting these portions of your TYP, you agree to the following:

1. You will provide the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of each child who will be photographed engaging in the project activity with a Selectiva.org Permission Slip, and ensure that each Permission Slip is signed by the parent or legal guardian of every child depicted in a photo you submit to Selectiva.org. You must maintain these permission slips, and if requested by Selectiva.org, you will provide Selectiva.org the signed permission slips of your students.
2. For projects that require student thank-you notes, you will provide student thank-you notes that do not contain any personal information that may identify a single student.
3. You understand that the promptness and thoroughness with which you complete the TYP may affect how many projects you are allowed to submit in the future. Please see How Points are Earned and Benefits Gained for more information.

Donor Terms

There are a few ways to donate through Selectiva.org. You can give directly to classroom projects, directly to a teacher, purchase a gift code, and purchase account credits. This section defines what you agree to when placing such donations.

Donations to Projects

Each donation made to Selectiva.org goes directly to fund the classroom project or Teacher for which it was given. Donors are encouraged to allocate 15% of their donation towards Selectiva.org operations but can remove or reduce this allocation at time of donation.

Included in the “material cost” (i.e., the price of the project exclusive of a donation to Selectiva.org operations) are: shipping charges, sales tax, credit card processing fees (regardless of payment method), and the cost of labor and materials needed to fulfill each project (which includes postage and processing for TYPs).

If you donate to a project during the “Friends and Family Pre-Funding” period, your donation will only be applied to the project once it is approved by our project screeners. If the project is overfunded, not approved, or otherwise canceled by the teacher, your donation will be given as Selectiva.org account credits to the teacher.

We cannot offer refunds on donations. If the project you donated to expires or otherwise doesn’t move forward before it is fully funded, we use a range of information to assess whether or not you personally know the teacher you’re giving to, and handle your donation in one of two ways:

- 1. If you donated through a link the Teacher provided, or otherwise indicated that you know the teacher personally: We’ll send your donation to the Teacher automatically, for use on their next classroom project.
- 2. If you did not donate through a link indicating that the Teacher referred you to the site: We’ll notify you via email so that you can choose whether you’d like to find another project to support, or send your donation to the original Teacher for their next classroom project. If you haven’t taken an action after thirty (30) days, we’ll apply your donation to an urgent classroom project in need of support.

Infrequently, a Teacher will move to a different school while they have active projects available for funding on the Site. Until the Teacher alerts us about their move, the school information associated with any projects posted on the Site may not accurately reflect the new school at which they are teaching. In addition, we may deliver the resources requested by that Teacher to their classroom at their new school, even if some or all of the project’s donations were received before the Teacher’s school information was updated on our website.

Gift Cards

Gift cards purchased at www.Selectiva.org/gifts expire six (6) months after the purchase date, in order to encourage recipients to apply the donation to a project as soon as possible. If you have provided an email address for your recipient, they’ll receive an email reminder if the gift card is unredeemed thirty (30) days after purchase. Gift cards obtained through other channels, such as a promotional campaign or giveaway also have pre-determined expiration dates that may be less than six (6) months from the date of receipt.

Gift cards can be redeemed toward projects requesting funding on Selectiva.org. If the gift card was obtained through a promotional campaign or giveaway, restrictions (such as a limit to the number of gift cards per user) may apply. Donations made by redeeming a gift card are not tax deductible. An optional donation toward Selectiva.org operations is determined at point of redemption by the gift card recipient.

Account Credits

You may purchase account credits or they may be available within your account when a donation is returned to you (usually in cases where a project doesn’t reach full funding). In that event, we’ll email you to let you know that you have account credits to spend.

If you purchase account credits directly, they will remain active for one (1) year after purchase. If you receive account credits through another means and either haven’t used them within thirty (30) days or requested to extend their expiration date, we’ll apply them to a project on your behalf in order to make sure that students get the resources they need as quickly as possible.
